The Voice of Wisconsin Beef Producers

Wisconsin Cattlemen's Association

The Wisconsin Cattlemen's Association is a trusted leader in the Wisconsin beef industry and gives a voice to our state's beef producers on a local, regional, and national level. When it comes to legislation impacting cattlemen and women you can count on the Wisconsin Cattlemen's Association to have your back. The association works closely with many industry partners to maintain a positive business environment for cattlemen through leadership and education. Become a member to ensure a viable Wisconsin beef industry now and in the future.

HOW WCA SERVES YOU

- Serving as the voice for all segments of Wisconsin's cattle industry
- Providing networking & educational opportunities amongst producers and industry professionals
- As an affiliate of the National Cattlemen's Beef Association, WCA is the voice for Wisconsin producers on national issues that impact cattle operations
- Hosts educational programs
- Supporting youth in the beef industry by sponsoring scholarships & awards to encourage the next generation of Wisconsin beef producers

WCA MEMBER BENEFITS:

- Partnership with UW-Madison, DATCP, & county agencies to develop producer focused programs
- Lobbying efforts throughout the state to stay on top of any regulatory issues that could negatively affect your operation
- Operation of the WCA Steak Trailer, our primary fundraiser that provides beef promotion and interactions between producers & consumers
- Sponsorship of educational programs
- Provides WCA exclusive youth scholarships
- Quarterly Cattle Trails subscription
